STAGECOACH

Rustic look, with large hand wipe effects throughout the hide, rich sporadic hand wipe effect, demonstrating variations in color that showcases the depth and dimension of the hide.

A whisper of protection — just enough to guard, never enough to mask.

You see some grain, the full life, the story never masked— but with a light veil of durability that keeps it practical, poised.

Natural nuances and the life of the cow displayed as it should be. Think chic Chalet vibe.
